

Hong Kong Intellectual Property Journal (HKIPJ)

The Hong Kong Intellectual Property Journal (HKIPJ) is published online. So far only trade marks matters are published.

User comments on the HKIPJ relate to how the online version fulfils the purposes of the paper version and the readability of the online version when printed in hard copy. We are seeking a user-friendly format which can serve the purpose of stakeholders.

We have compiled two versions for your viewing and trial (please click here). Let us know how you feel (please click comment form to reply). Thank you.
