

Addition of opponents

An additional opponent cannot be added to an opposition after the expiry of the three-month period for filing notice of opposition, (or the further two-month extension if granted) for that party would be out of time and the period is not extendible.

The addition of a further opponent is not a substitution situation.

* * *